

A misquotation appeared in the Summer 2002 issue of Canadian Signals. In the story about STC fees, Alberta Chapter past president Ian Hawkins was reported to have said, in an explanation of rules governing chapter spending, that the rules "...prevent the use of chapter funds for the personal benefit of executive members". The article should have reported that the rules apply to all members, not just to the executive members. Canadian SIGnals regrets this error.